At the beginning of our trip

While on the trip to Turkey I wanted to take a picture of the airport in Istanbul because it looked very pretty.

After landing in Ankara, we decided to take a memorable photo before going on a very long road trip.

This was the plane that took us to our destination.

I really enjoyed this day's trip and I think everybody else enjoyed it too.

Our first meeting

At the beginning of the day we went to the Turkish school. There we made our first contact with the other participants of the project. After a while, a lady came to us and invited us to the computer room. There we sat down at the computer as a team and learned the basic functions of the PhotoShop graphics program.

After the workshop at the computer lab, we went to the school canteen where we were welcome to help ourselves with a sweet snack. Then we went to the science center where we could familiarize ourselves with the latest technology, illusions, and laws of physics.

Then we went for lunch, and after that to the hotel. There we talked and played different games together. Later we went for dinner and went to bed. It was a very interesting day.

30th November 2022

On the third day we went on a trip to a wax figures museum and saw many famous people's statues like Marilyn Monroe, Einstein, world leaders etc.

After that we walked around a small town.

At about 3 pm we arrived at the museum of Turkish rulers.

From about 4 pm till 4:40 pm we were in a planetarium.

Then we walked around a nearby
park and went back to the hotel.

A new adventure

After waking up, we quickly ate breakfast and hopped on the bus, we began a very long and tiring journey. Seriously, we felt like it lasted 5 hours. We talked for a long time, so we were running out of things to talk about. But after a cruel time we knew we had arrived after we saw the beautiful mountains.

The image shows the interior of the Afyonkarahisar Grand Mosque. It features a series of tall, slender, light-brown wooden pillars supporting a dark, intricately carved wooden ceiling. The floor is covered in a red and white patterned carpet. Several ornate, multi-tiered chandeliers hang from the ceiling, casting a warm glow. In the background, there are wooden balconies and a staircase. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and architectural beauty.

Afyonkarahisar Grand Mosque

- After a long journey, we arrived at the Afyonkarahisar Grand Mosque, where we explored the place Muslims pray and we had to strictly follow the rules, such as taking off our shoes and walking on the floor in socks, otherwise we could have been kicked out. The beauty of this place really blew our minds. The pillars, the designs, they were perfect.

A large bronze statue of a muscular man, possibly a hero or a deity, standing on a dark stone pedestal. The statue is set against a blue sky with scattered white clouds. In the foreground, a young man with light brown hair, wearing a light green jacket, stands in front of the statue. In the background, a building with a red flag and a mountain peak are visible.

The Market called „Arasta”

The whole area was so beautiful that we explored the town and saw a market with clothes and cloths. We even bought some souvenirs to bring back to Poland. And then we drove back to the hotel

The last party

We returned to the hotel and had a bit of a rest. Later, we watched two World Cup games, Canada versus Morocco and Croatia versus Belgium. After that we went to the main restaurant where we ate and then the party began. Everyone started dancing, eating and all around having a great time. Unfortunately, we had to leave and pack our suitcases to get ready for the flight.

The end of it all

We got back to the hotel, being sad and slept good to get up early for the flight. And that's the end of our beautiful journey to Turkey

2nd December 2022

We spent the last day travelling back home. After waking up around 7 am we took a bus to the airport in Ankara. The trip took around 3 hours. Suprisingly, there were a lot of pigeons at the airport. We took off from Ankara and arrived at Istanbul airport. The flight from Istambul to Poland took 2.5 hours and we landed around 6pm. Our adventure was over!
